

Welcome to The Bay Area Trauma Recovery Clinic

Intake Paperwork for New Clients

In this packet you will find:

- Consent to Receive Therapy Services
- Information about your Patient Rights
- Information about your Health Information Privacy Rights
- Intake Interview Form
- Questionnaires/Assessments

Please read and complete the following forms to the best of your ability. If you do not finish your intake clinician will support you in completing the forms.

This can feel like a lot to read and fill out. If you would like help filling out the paperwork, ask your intake clinician, they will be happy to assist you.

As part of the intake evaluation process you will be asked to complete a number of questionnaires in addition to meeting with a clinician for your intake appointment.

The questionnaires will specifically evaluate social, emotional, and personality functioning, and the data will be included in a written report shared with the clinician assigned to work with you. Your assigned clinician will use the information from your intake appointment and results of the questionnaires to help us understand what is going on for you, to guide treatment interventions, and diagnosis.

Intake Interview Form:

Answer these questions to the best of your ability. It is likely that your clinician will review this form with you.

Questionnaires/Assessments

Please read the instructions for completion of these measures located at the top of the page. Results on these measures do not determine eligibility for the clinic and there are no correct answers, so please answer the questions in a way that best represents your experience.
